IT HAS come to our knowledge from a very reliable source that Hon. J. M. Galloway is in error in regard to the statements made by him in reference to Dr. Morrow, State treasurer. That gentleman has never used the money or moneys of the State for private or speculative purposes, and has all his life, though not what would be considered wealthy, been far beyond any possible necessity for so doing. He is conscientious in the discharge of every duty, and justly prides himself upon an integrity that cannot be assailed. We trust that in any future strictures upon publicofficers Mr. Galloway will be more specific, and furnish the public with dates. names and places, especially woen treating of an officer to whose care is committed the finances of the State.

THE following information, of great value to Mississippi land owners, is furnished us by Messrs. Porter, Taylor & Co., of this city, to whom it was addressed by a correspondent: "The assessment of real estate in this State is now going on; it is assessed only once in four years, and it is of the utmost importance that every man owning land in the State shall see to its being now listed, at a valuation comporting with the shrinkage since four years ago. Where no attention is paid to it the lands with former valuation will be transcribed to the new tax rolls. On the spot here we are putting down our lands at an average of one-half the valuation of 1870. Let Memphis men govern themselves cacordingly."

This document reveals the also, that stone posts have always marked the line where aboriginal terri-tory begins. Thus new evidence is afforded that China has never controlled the savages of Formosa. If so, his action was premature, as the government is now nearly ready to announce itself prepared for the revision.
